The following are among the special coins that will be auctioned:

Morgan Dollars

Composed of 90% silver, these are the first standard silver dollars minted after the passage of the Coinage Act of 1873. They are named after their designer, an English engraver named George T. Morgan.

Barber Quarters & Dimes

Minted between 1892 and 1916, these coins were designed by Charles E. Barber, the Chief Engraver of the U.S. Bureau of the Mint.

Lincoln Wheat Cents (also called Lincoln Wheat Pennies)

First minted in 1909, these pennies are the first circulating U.S. coins to feature the likeness of a real person, in this case President Abraham Lincoln.

Silver Rounds

Silver rounds are privately minted silver coins typically composed of 99.9% silver. They often contain depictions of animals or symbols, and unlike government-issued coins, silver rounds do not have legal tender status.

FAQ

What is a consignment auction?

A consignment auction features sellers who consign their products to an auction house (in this case the seller is Hand-in-Hand Fire Co). The seller can either be an individual or a business. The Fire Co. then acts as the third party and auctions off the items for the seller. In exchange, the Fire Co. receives a portion of the proceeds (see Commission Schedule) and the seller receives the rest.

Do I have to consign my items early?

While submitting your consignments in early May get your items exposure in the flyer you're reading, the bulk of our consignments arrive during auction week. You're welcome to just show up during sale week drop-off days to consign! We update our website daily during sale week to show potential visitors what's for sale!

Do you accept donations?

Yes! Gather a few friends to collaborate on a homemade project such as a quilt, piece of furniture, a gift basket, or something else. Or, pull together some business associates and donate a high value item for our noon specialty sale. We will recognize your businesses in our flyer and on the auction block.

We ask that vendors and consignors respect this environment and refrain from offering items that are discriminatory, degrading, racial, or drug- and alcohol-related. The Committee reserves the right to refuse any consignors, vendors, or items that do not meet these guidelines or are otherwise deemed unacceptable.
